I have lived on the back roads of northeastern Washington since I was 6 years old. All my life, I have been educated at home. Other than writing, I enjoy singing on the worship team at my church. Some of my favorite authors are Roald Dahl, C.S. Lewis, and William Shakespeare. I chose to write the experience I wrote because I felt it showed who I am, and who I want to be. God has created a beautiful world, and I feel blessed to be a part of it.
